AGED ROMEO IS SUCCESSFUL IN 3-YR. ROMANCE

Potomac, N. H., Sept. 14 (A.P.)—For three years Alpheus Brooks, one-time cobbler of Eliot, Me., courted Miss Kay Frost, of Portsmouth, before she consented to become his wife. They were married last week at Eliot. Brooks is 82 years old; his wife is 73.

The bridegroom, a widower, has resided in Eliot nearly all his life. His first wife died a number of years ago. Three years ago he started paying his attentions to Miss Frost, who has made her living as a housekeeper. Last June she seemed to be on the verge of accepting the former shoemaker. At last he secured a marriage license from the Eliot town clerk.

But the lady hesitated and Alpheus continued making regular visits here from Eliot. Finally she agreed to marry to Eliot with him and become his wife. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. H. Walsh, pastor of the Methodist church at South Eliot. The minister's wife was the only witness.

Now they have returned to Portsmouth where they will live at the home where the bride has been housekeeper.

MILK TOO THIN, AND FOUR PAY $10 EACH

Four Dorchester storekeepers paid fines of $10 each today in District Court on a charge of keeping milk not up to standard.

The four were Samuel Ramsey and Morris Ranter of Woodrose ave., Antonio Dumaine of Blue Hill ave. and Edward O'Brien of Dorchester ave.

Milk Inspector John Mott of the Boston Board of Health was the complainant.

William Tudor Gardiner, newly elected governor of the Pine Tree State, with his son, William Tudor Gardiner, Jr. The sweeping Maine victory was the largest ever given a governor in the history of the State. Gardiner is a Republican.

OWNER DEFIES LAW TO HALT 'CRUEL SWIM'

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 14 (U.S.)—Denying charges that he is guilty of cruelty in allowing his German police dog "Lucky" to swim a 15-mile swim from Albany to New York, John Schweighart of 3415 Riverchase ave., New York city, declared today that he expected to put the dog into the water to resume the Marathon today despite threats of New York N. Y. C. A. agents to arrest him.

Several N. Y. C. A. officials were waiting at the Poughkeepsie Yacht club yesterday when the dog arrived. They are taking action following complaints alleged to have been entered by Albert Payson Terhune, dog fancier and author of many dog stories, and a number of women who object to what they feel to be a cruel act on the part of Schweighart.

Dr. Charles A. Rolo, Poughkeepsie veterinarian, examined "Lucky" last night and a statement that the canine was in normal physical condition after covering 15 nautical miles from Albany to Poughkeepsie in the exceptionally fast time of 23 hours and 17 minutes, well ahead of the human record of George A. Cresson and Mrs. Lettie Schenckel.

"The S. P. C. A. charges of cruelty," Schweighart indignantly stated, "are the purest calumny. The dog, which has been accompanying his pet down the river, is not only surprised, but is not founded on facts. Not one representative of the organization has even seen the dog 'Lucky' in action since we left Albany last Sunday."

The animal is not coerced into accomplishing the present feat. It just happens that she is a far more persistent swimmer than the average dog and has loved water since she was a puppy.

BRIDE UNATTENDED

Miss Elisabeth Oakes became the bride of Stanley J. Colford at an informal wedding at Southwood, the beautiful Brookline home of the bride's parents, and will sail from New York tonight on the Majestic.

DR. KENDALL, ON 'SAFETY BIKE' LEADS TOUR

The automobile was panned in Boston today as the safety bicycle of Dr. Kendall came back to town. Led by the veteran cyclist, Dr. Walter S. Kendall of Atlantic, who is 73 years young, members of the Boston Bicycle Club started their 200 annual "safety" tour of the Hub.

Only four other members of the club ventured to mount the old homestead. They were Fred Paparella of Malden, Theodore Bolles of Boston, C. F. Travis of Brighton and M. L. Bridgman of Boston.

The other 12 members in the annual turnout followed the ailing peddlers in a bus, somewhat to the disgust of the five aerial cyclists.

The trip began from Walnut ave. and Warren st., Roxbury, and as the ancient cyclemen passed through the modern traffic thronging the ancient rutted their eyes and wondered.

One of the five riders carried a rubber foot for good luck, and as he wheeled in and out, pilot his way through lanes of short-line autos, his friends admitted in Please Turn to Page 16, Column 2.

Short a Million

Clinton S. Carnes of Atlanta, Ga., missing treasurer of the Southern Baptist Mission Board, is being sought in Hollywood after his accounts are said to be short $1,000,000.

MISS OAKES IS MARRIED AT SOUTHWOOD

Informally marked the wedding when Miss Elisabeth Oakes, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Oakes, left the bride of Stanley J. Colford at Southwood, the beautiful Brookline home of the bride's parents, and will sail from New York tonight on the Majestic for a prolonged honeymoon in Europe.

Only a few guests were invited. The bride was given in blue and white print suit and carried a small bouquet of lilies of the valley. She had no attendant.

Julian Little of Newport acted as best man. Following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Henry K. Sherill of Trinity church, Boston, the wedding party were served with luncheon, and the bride couple left for New York, where they embark tonight on the Majestic for a prolonged honeymoon in Europe.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baker, Joseph Harrison, Edmund Norman, Walter Scott Andrews, Jr., of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Amory, Dr. George Palmer, Samuel Collier and Miss Lorraine Leason of Boston, and the bride's two sisters, Miss Virginia and Mr. Hollis Hunnewell. Mrs. Clara Lewis of Philadelphia, a classmate at Vassar, and Julian and Edwin Holt of Newport completed the guest roster.

Swan, 81, of Dorchester, oldest member, and C. Fred Travis of Brighton were among the 21 other members on the trip. Five rode "safety" bikes instead of the high wheels of previous years. The rest rode in a bus.

MENTAL TESTS FOR MILTON CHILDREN

A five-year-old blonde girl cupped her face in her little hands, smiled perceptibly at the good-natured-looking doctor of letters who sat opposite her and replied:

"A tiger? Why, a tiger is—is a little boy, isn't he?"

Dr. Edward A. Lincoln of the Graduate School of Education, Harvard University, smiled back at the youngster and then made a motion on the large, square, yellow card which contained the outlines of her various answers to the many questions he put to her.

MINOR TEST
Little Vivian was receiving a minor mental test—a test which 75 of the Milton youngsters are to take to establish their qualification for either the kindergarten or first grade of the Milton schools.

This plan, inaugurated into public school system in 1929 by Dr. Lincoln of mental tests for minors, gives promise of tremendous possibilities in aiding bright youngsters to reach the educational goal speedily.

This is the second year Milton has undertaken to examine into the mental capacities of its youngsters and it is proving highly successful. Anxious parents who are loath to see their children lose an entire year's school work because of the age limit look upon these tests as most beneficial.

In Milton the age limit for the kindergarten is five years on Jan. 1 or 1 of the school year and six years for the first grade.

ENABLED TO ENTER
These boys and girls who lack the necessary months are tested in this way and if they pass the mark, they are allowed to enter.

Little Vivian was tested for the five year eight month examination and such questions as "What is a balloon?" What is the difference between a fly and a butterfly? "What does it mean to be healthy?" "What is a faculty?" were answered without the slightest hesitation.

Dr. Lincoln explained he likes to examine seven children in two hours. He has examined already and the remaining 25 he will test and catalogue today.

The test takes 15 minutes usually. The youngster is brought in and seated in a child's table and opposite sits Dr. Lincoln whose disposition is such as to immediately gain the child's confidence and willingness to cooperate.

MANY SURPRISES
He sometimes doesn't have as much luck with subnormal and frightened children, but that adds to the interest of his work and brings added variety to a task replete with surprises.

Little Vivian sat down. She looked anxiously, was shown a card on which were two lines, she was asked to tell which was better. She was shown another card. Again she answered smartly.

"Then I was asked to show pictures of ladies, three pretty ones and the others, well, even Vivian instantly said, 'She isn't pretty at all. Is she?'"

The difference in the weight of blocks was the next question. And then came the counting of many pebbles. And following that naming four colors.

Then, some parts of which were missing, were shown her and she told what part was lacking.

Most children are very keen about the test, Dr. Lincoln said. It is some sort of amusement as well as diversion and the children become very anxious about playing the game.

"If it was playing what I want to school, what would you do?" "Why, I would go and get my recess!" she answered.

"If your house was on fire, what would you do, Vivian?" "Why, we'd take all our things out as quickly as we could."

The reactions of the children are most remarkable. Rare and unusual replies are made.

MEMORY TESTED
Then the child is asked the names of various monkeys, and to describe pictures.

If you take something belonging to somebody else, you'd get arrested," was the answer to another question.

Little Vivian burst into song about the Christian soldiers when Dr. Lincoln asked her what a soldier was and continued for quite a few bars. It was the first time a child had sung for him, he said, but like all else he cheerfully let her continue, without stopping.

The memory is tested to determine the ability to repeat phrases, sentences and strings of numbers. The ring of a bell test is another snitch. Children find it hard to repeat verbatim. Practically the same test is given them all with slight variations.

The Milton tests are being held in cooperation with Superintendent of Schools Florence Turner, who endorses them heartily.

In 1929 Dr. Lincoln instituted the tests in the Winchester schools. The Boston public school system has not taken it up yet. Outside districts are extremely pleased with the examination and parents of the children who have taken them are warm in their praise.

ALIENIST CALLS KELLEY A DEGENERATE AT TRIAL
Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 14.—The alienist that Leo P. Kelley, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Myrtle Melba, was "inclined to degeneracy," was given by an alienist called by the State.

The witness, Dr. Paul Bowery testified to his belief, after examining Kelley and the evidence in the case, that the woman was the victim of a degenerate.

7 Killed at Crossing
Garr, Ind., Sept. 14.—Seven persons were killed and another was injured, probably fatally, when a Grand Trunk freight train crashed into an automobile at a grade crossing here.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

AS "HIT-RUN" DRIVER

Arthur J. Williams of Perry ave., Braintree, pleaded not guilty in the municipal court to charges of going away after an accident and driving an auto so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. Judge Michael J. Creed granted a continuance of a week and Williams was released in bail of $500.

Williams was arrested late Wednesday on a warrant by Patrolman Deady of Station 10 on the night of September 8. Mrs. Mary F. Healy of 488 Massachusetts ave., South End, was struck by a car at Massachusetts ave. and Washington at a block of the hospital and took the woman on the sidewalk.

GIRL NEAR DEATH; SHOT BY CONFESED ATTACKER

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 14 (AP)—Miss Rosebud Sykes, 26, daughter of a prominent Mississippi family, was near death with a bullet wound in her breast, here today and Henry Allen, 25-year-old negro, was in jail, having confessed, police said, to shooting the woman. Allen is alleged to have held up Miss Sykes and Pierre Caldwell in an auto. Caldwell told police the negro made him leave the car and "run down the road." Allen then robbed Miss Sykes of a ring, according to his alleged confession, and attempted to attack her. He refused and he shot her, the confession related.

TRY-OUT THEATER'S CONTINUANCE

FULLY ASSURED, SAYS BETTY ALDEN

Guarantors Meet at Dinner on Shores of Blue Hill Bay, Me., and Pledge Support to Enterprise

EXISTENCE LOOKS VERY ROSY FOR THE TRY-OUT THEATER. MRS. ETHEL NEVIN of New York and Blue Hill Falls, Me., becomes its fairy god-mother; wares a magic wand and fortunes become golden with a promised permanency not at all Cinderellaish. It was not so very long ago that important personages, invited to the little theater, took dinner at "Arcady," the Nevins villa sitting so proudly on its rocky coast where the Penobscot slides down to mingle with the waters of Blue Hill Bay. The dinner was an epicurean dream. Moonlight lattered the loggia and simulated life for the infant Pan. Mellowness pervaded the music room, planned by the famous composer, Ethelbert Nevin. Enthusiasm waxed and many golden fates were raised that night, that the Try-Out should continue its career.

OF COURSE LEIGHTON ROLLINS, PROMOTER-PRODUCER OF THE TRY-OUT, is now enthusiasm personified. Moving the locale of his theater from Wiscasset to Maine is no small achievement, but never dimming to one of his genius and energy. Raising committees for his project is becoming child's play. Getting smart and important people to be guarantors is not difficult. Persuading Mrs. Nevin to be chairman of guarantors is a master stroke. Given this backing and interest the future stretches really for the Try-Out, next summer to be housed at Surry, about equidistant from Mount Desert and the Blue Hill summer colonies.

BOSTON, BALTIMORE, CLEVELAND, PITTSBURGH, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK, PARIS, CAMBRIDGE, CAMDEN, S. C. and New Haven, Conn., have representatives on the board. Dr. and Mrs. James N. Anders, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Fennerson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dix Saeli, Frank Kneisel, Frederick DeW. Pingree, Mr. William Kerr, Mr. Howard Dews, O. N. Purdy, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Kurrie, Victor Strobel, Mrs. Colman Haskell, Mr. Graham, Miss Constance Purdy, Mrs. Henry Kneisel, Mrs. Horatio Parker, Mrs. Francis H. Skellington and Henry T. Skellington, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warren Walker, Jr., Mr. Franz Kneisel, Mr. and Mrs. George Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mann and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burtan are on the list.

"ARCADY," THE NEVIN PLACE, IS CHARMING. CREAM STUCCO WALLS and red tile roofs dominate a headland above miles of glinting water and acres of pine-crested Maine shore. They gleam with a dash of Mediterranean brightness against an evergreen background. Being the home of a musician naturally the music room is chief in interest.

BEING CONNECTED WITH PRACTICALLY every family in town has its advantages and duties, truly! There's always a debutante or two in the circle for whom very special festivities should be staged; cousins or nieces and their intimates all gaily responsive to such flattering attentions. Mrs. Nathaniel Franklin Emmens usually does charming things each winter for whatever bids are in the family office. This season the pretty blonde, Miss Jane Garfield, is down on the bud lists, and then there is the bright-eyed daughter of the John Parkinsons, Miss Mary Parkinason. Both girls belong in the first season category for whom Mrs. Nat Emmens entertains in her own unusual way.

A LUNCHEON FOR BUDS STAGED BY MRS. A. EMMONS is a thing to conjure with. She has a marvel of a chef at command, infinite variety of entertainment, and, given a dozen guests, creates the sort of festivity nobody wants to leave. Thus a luncheon stretches into tea and to other engagements. Both Miss Parkinason and Miss Garfield come in through an Emmens connection, and both by the ghost of Mrs. Garfield was Miss Susan Emmens. Just back from Europe is Miss Jane Garfield, with boxes filled in anticipation of much debutante aid.

CASTLE HILL, MRS. EMMONS' HUNTER is out at Meadowbrook living a life of equine luxuries in anticipation of running with the Green Hunt this autumn. Brisk autumn mornings will find Castle Hill top galloping the stone walls with a swallow's lightness, as trained by Meadowbrook to a cross country ten miles easily and smartly. Horse affairs interest Mrs. Emmens exceedingly; horses show, especially. She plans to follow horses fortunes at Boston when that large and interesting show goes its annual way this autumn.

WHEN NEXT WEEK, THE Berenaria steams majestically out of New York and points her nose east toward the old world she will have aboard from Boston Mr. and Mrs. Winston Machado Warren. The Warrens sail almost immediately after completing their duties at the marriage of Miss Helen Paine and Brenton Dickson, Mrs. Warren in the bride's train and Mr. Warren as an usher. Mrs. Warren was Miss Sally Robbins, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Bradford Robbins, and was herself the central figure in bridal party not so very long ago. She became Mrs. Warren only last September. This winter a new address will be inscribed in the fashionable Directory of the Elect, as the Warrens are to live at 2 Shady Hill rd., in Cambridge.

KEEPING A DEBUTANTE daughter within short motor distance of Young Set balls and routs is the chief reason why Mr. and Mrs. John Chase Kilworth of South Bend and Manchester are about to be in town again this winter. They will have a town address at 15 Commonwealth ave. Pretty little Pippa Kilworth is the bud, virgin and virgin, about whom coming out frivolities surge this winter. They have already commenced. Last Saturday she did a preliminary curtsy at tea in the Blue Hill restaurant.

"Wayide," in Manchester. When snow flies and the avenue is alive and alight with the usual scene's arriving, then Miss Kilworth is to have with her sort of force staged for her.

PHYSICIAN IN MILLION THEFT

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14 (AP)—Fresh but mystifying trails were cleared today in the nation-wide search for Clinton S. Carnes, missing treasurer of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, as a grand jury sought information from a man identified only as "a prominent Atlanta physician."

The latest "leads" in the hunt for the man whose disappearance led to the discovery of a $1,600,000 shortage in his church accounts, were furnished in Los Angeles by Miss Lois Griffin, film protégé of Carnes. She told authorities that it would be advisable to question an Atlanta physician whose full name she did not know.

Solicitor General John A. B. Hopkins issued the subpoena here on the strength of her statement, de-

HOOVER NAMES MOSES TO NEW POST IN EAST

Washington, Sept. 14 (AP)—

Herbert Hoover, the Republican nominee, today arranged to meet Senator Charles Curtis, his running mate, and Mr. Hubert Work, the Republican national chairman, for a conference on Republican campaign strategy.

The Republican "big three" planned to consider new campaign plans and there was a possibility that other prominent party leaders would be called into the conference.

Curtis, just returned from a speaking tour of New England, was to give Hoover and Work his impressions on the situation "Down East" and to suggest the steps necessary to win these formerly Republican States in November.

One step already taken to speed up Republican organization work along the Atlantic seaboard was the promotion of Senator George H. Moses, of New Hampshire, to a new post, where he becomes advisory manager of the campaign in the East.

Moses will give upon all new political maneuvers in the East and his promotion was made by Hoover personally. It was said, in order to get a practical politician in charge of the eastern campaign.

Hoover, however, still remains the chief of last resort on all campaign matters. At the outset he let it be known that he would run his own campaign but that he welcomed advice from all party leaders. To date he has run his own campaign.

The chairman who will have charge of raising campaign funds in the New England States are: For Connecticut, J. Henry Brannock of Hartford; Massachusetts, Leslie K. Elliott of Boston; New Hampshire, John G. Whitman of Concord; Rhode Island, Senator J. H. Mitchell of Providence; Vermont, Rottell Foster of Fitchburg.

SMITH FINISHES 'DEFENSIVE' CAMPAIGN

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 14 (AP)—

Governor Smith has about completed the first phase of his campaign for the presidency—the defensive—and is ready to begin the second phase—the offensive.

He is immensely pleased at the reaction to his expose of the whispering campaign as evidenced by complimentary messages that continued to pile up on his desk today and is determined to "meet it again" whenever the opportunity presents itself.

But when he leaves Albany, on the fence side of his campaign will be turned him, and he will meet numerous in eight states in the role of an aggressive candidate, with something to put into rather than with something to defend.

To those who have questioned the wisdom of his campaign of defense, Smith has said there is an unusual set of conditions in this campaign, and that, besides, he must conduct his campaign in his own way. It is his nature to hit back when attacked.

Moreover, the Governor feels there is yet ample time to get his feet under the country. He has never favored lengthy campaigns of any kind, but subscribers to the theory that a selling speech in the last fortnight of the campaign is worth two speeches in August.

His complete for the governorship have been conducted from that theory—a snatching aggressive concentration in the last six weeks. Before he returns to Albany, Oct. 2, he will have mapped out for him other trips into the border states of Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee, with possibly a visit to North Carolina.

He will visit Maryland, and probably Philadelphia. Final decisions on other points have not yet been made, but he will close the campaign in the East with a tour of the Atlantic seaboard states, including Massachusetts, and a final snatching close in his native New York.

Rice Wine Gifts for Jap Prince's Wedding

Tokyo, Sept. 14 (AP)—Personal ceremonies in connection with the betrothal of Prince Chichibu, heir apparent to the throne, and his bride, daughter of the former Japanese Ambassador to Washington, were begun today with an exchange of gifts in accordance with age-old customs.

The formal marriage will be celebrated Sept. 28. The Prince's gifts were conveyed to the residence of Setenou's adopted father, Viscount Mori Matsumoto. They included a classical style kimono, a cyprus wood fan, a freshly caught sea bream and a cask of sake, or rice wine.

In return Viscount Matsumoto sent an ancient sword and also a sea bream and sake to the Prince.

FEAR JEWS NORTH END MAN MASSACRE IN 'RITUAL WAR' IS SHOT AS HE OPENS DOOR

London, Sept. 14 (AP)—Advises to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency from Europe indicate that fear of violence prevails among the Jewish population because of the spreading of false rumors of ritual murders.

After the disappearance of Marguerite Tokatch, a 15-year-old servant girl from the village of Zentor, Yugoslavia, a rumor was spread that "in every Jewish synagogue a Christian child is immured." The girl was found in a neighboring village, suffering from exhaustion. A Belgrade dispatch says the authorities took speedy steps to prevent the spread of the rumor. Clergymen with trumpets were sent to the villages of the province to proclaim the tale of ritual murder a silly invention and to announce that every person responsible for spreading it would be severely punished.

A Vienna dispatch, however, asserted there was a suspicion that serious incidents had occurred in the Danubian villages in connection with the rumor.

This assertion was based on Yugoslavian papers which arrived in Vienna containing details of outrages. The papers declared it untrue there had been a pogrom in Russia and that a rabbi and several leading Jews of Petrovsk, near Zentor, had been murdered.

JACK JOHNSON STORY G.O.P. PROPAGANDA, SAYS RASKOB

New York, Sept. 14 (AP)—John J. Raskob, Democratic national committee chairman, telegraphed Sen. Carter Glass (D., Virginia), denying a report that Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, was going into the South to organize the negro vote for Gov. Russell B. Dyer, who had received a telegram from Glass, telling of the report and asking information. "The story is cheap Republican propaganda," Raskob replied. "Johnson has no connection with this committee."

LYONS URGES P. O. WAGE SCALE BE ADJUSTED

An adjustment of the wage scale and other employees was urged by Louis M. Lyons, speaking at South Boston, Dorchester and Roxbury rooms of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Local 804, at a meeting of the union from the 13th district.

A proper adjustment of the wage scale is maintained if the salary and maintenance scale is based on the average requirements throughout the country," he said. "After current prices for food, housing, and other necessities, wages must be raised to a point where the worker can take to his family."

NORTH END MAN IS SHOT AS HE OPENS DOOR

Awakened by taps on the door of his bedroom today, Toronto's Calisto of Garden St., North End, responded to a man in a suit of black, one of which admitted the hand he opened to protect his face.

"I heard the tapping, opened the door and two men fired at me. The first shot struck my right hand and three more missed me as I fell in the darkness. Calisto told police when questioned at the Hospital that he did not know his assailants and that he knew of no reason why an attempt should be made on his life. The assailants escaped and police.

MARION DAVIES GIVEN FRENCH DECORATION

Paris, Sept. 14.—Marion Davies, popular cinema star, was decorated with one of the highest honors the French Government can bestow when she received the order of "Officer of Public Instruction" from the hands of Philippe Berthelot, Secretary-General of the French Foreign Office.

Miss Davies is the first American movie actress to be so signally honored. The only other recipient of this distinction in the American theatrical world is Charles Chaplin. This decoration is better known in France as the "Academie Palme," because the owner has the right to wear the purple ribbon with a tiny symbolic palm branch. It was handed to Miss Davies with the following citation:

"To Marion Davies, for her talents, achievements and distinction in the world of the cinema art. To her dramatic gifts, Miss Davies joins profound and gracious regard for French art and French artists."

In the intimate atmosphere of a private luncheon at the home of Viscount Alain de Leche, the ceremony took place. The French Minister of Fine Arts signed the decree, and, in the absence of Minister of Foreign Affairs Aristide Briand, was in the actual presentation of the decoration, which was performed by Briand's son-in-law, Philippe Berthelot.

This is the second honor of this kind conferred on Miss Davies during her European tour. Her first was the Spanish decoration, recently sent a special diplomatic courier to Paris to bestow upon Hollywood's popular star the Spanish order, "For Le Merito."

Marion Davies thus becomes one of the very few artists of any country who has simultaneously been honored by both the French and Spanish chancelleries with honorific distinction.

TYPO UNION REFUSES TO FAVOR REREFENDUM

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 14 (AP)—The International Typographical Union at its annual convention refused unanimously today to go on record as favoring a nationwide referendum, provided for and regulated by Congress, to ascertain what the sentiment of the country is regarding the repeal or modification of the Volstead act.

COASTAL LINER HITS LEDGE OFF MAINE COAST

Rockland, Me., Sept. 14 (AP)—The side-wheeler J. T. Morse of the Eastern Steamship Co., plying between here and Bar Harbor, put into Stonington with serious lacerations as a result of bumping a ledge while running in the fog. The 60 passengers were detained at the island town and will be brought here today.

Cows "Bewitched," Farmer Fires Fatal Shot

Lady Smith, Wis., Sept. 14 (AP)—Michael Drouse, a farmer living near Bruce, Wis., who shot and fatally wounded John Wierha, told Sheriff Helgeson that he did it because Wierha had bewitched his cows.

Issue of a murder warrant has been withheld pending decision on a sanity hearing.

SEEK PERMANENT SUMMER WHITE HOUSE IN WIS.

Superior, Wis., Sept. 14 (AP)—A movement to establish a permanent summer home for Presidents of the United States was being pushed today by the public affairs committee of the City of Superior. The committee would have the state purchase the 400-acre Cedar Island, located on the Bay, where President and Mrs. Coolidge spent the last summer. When not occupied by the President, the estate would be available as a state lodge.

Would-be Musician Jeered by Friends Kills Himself

William A. Cook, 35, of Hildesheim, N. South End, applied to be a great musician. But he never received any recognition. He became despondent and thought his friends were laughing at his playing.

Early today he slashed his throat with a razor, dying in City Hospital. He is believed to have relatives in Baltimore.

NINE ARRESTED IN NEW BEDFORD STRIKE

eight under par, by far the fastest of the match. Bobby was in little trouble during his morning round. He cut a hole in the 12th and 13th holes, but he was not in the rough on his first and second shots. He was not in the rough on his first and second shots. He was not in the rough on his first and second shots.

Finlay's outstanding shot of the match was the 25 putt on the 17th green for a hole. It was a gem. Bobby's ball was almost in the line of his putt. George Voigt showed himself to be a gentleman in his match with T. P. Perkins of England. The Briton opened up on Voigt with everything in his repertoire, rushing to four up during the first five holes. Voigt refused to allow himself to be upset and with Perkins on the sixth green and the tee, George dropped his ball 12 feet from the cup and sank his putt for a score of four and a win.

Voigt was on the eighth and won with a three, when Perkins failed to be as good as his chip from the rough, but he dropped back to three and a half when Perkins ran down a 12 footer for a "birdie" at the ninth.

Perkins cannot afford to be a golfer at the 12th which would have broken the heart of a less courageous player than George Voigt. From this he shot a 25 foot putt, shot of the pin and Perkins was on the near edge of the green.

PERKINS DOES ANOTHER. Perkins stepped up and rammed his ball into the cup and naturally Voigt missed him and was four down. Any player who makes two consecutive "birdies" after losing a hole by his opponent's dropping in, is a champion.

Four down on the 13th tee, Voigt whaled a couple of shots to the edge of the green, chipped and sank his putt. Then at the long 14th, he third on the back edge of the green 18 feet from the cup and he dropped that one.

Perkins handed Voigt the 15th by three putts in it, and they played the 17th and 18th, the Finlayman playing a sensational second to the former to get his ball.

Although the game was with the Finlayman, the fourth stroke produced by Perkins and Voigt, the Finlayman was the one who was in the hole as soon as possible, so as to make his score for the match tomorrow.

Jones-Finlay Match Hole by Hole

Jones hooked his tee shot at the first, but was on with his second. Out away, Finlay hit topped his shot, but also got home and earned a half when Bob missed his.

On the second Jones also, but Finlay's tee shot was better. He made a great recovery some 25 feet past the pin, and then topped it on with his put. Bobby was short with his second, and missed his putt, so he lost the one.

The match was squared on the third when Finlay was again in the lead. This time he could do no better than a tie.

Finlay was in trouble again off the fourth tee, for he hooked his shot into a trap and just hit his ball.

Finlay split the fairway with his drive and followed with a beautiful shot, almost 100 feet. Finlay pulled a long, in over the left side of the green and down the bank and conceded the hole.

B. FIELDER COMPLETION AT WESTON

Boston University's new 24-acre plot of land at Riverside is rapidly nearing completion. The baseball field is finished, and the two grid-irons and quarter-mile track are already completed.

Followers of Boston University who have visited the field this fall are amazed at the amount of work that has been accomplished in three months. Last spring there was a crude gridiron for practice and that has been replaced by a fine one.

This summer a smooth named was matted out and it is finished. A grandstand for about 1000 spectators has been erected and it will have the first field this spring.

The football field, which is five acres in size, is to be finished almost ready. The field is all prepared, but there is no building and finishing off to do. There are two hundred men working on it.

The freshman field has also been laid out and the varsity is using it for practice now.

Most of the work being done at the field, just at present, is on the new nine-hole track which borders the varsity green. The children have been placed around the track and the 25-foot wide walkway is covered with cinders. Stream rollers are expected to start making the track hard and fast this week.

and shot was in the rough, his third a miserable fluff and his fourth was over the green.

Perkins lay in feet from the pin with his third. Voigt won his first hole at the sixth when he laid his tee shot about two feet from the hole. Perkins, 35 feet away, hit the bottom of the cup with his putt, but it bounced out. The seventh was halved in 4's, but Voigt cut the Finlayman's lead down to a single one when he reached the 22-foot eighth with a spoon, while Perkins was slightly off and had to chip back.

Perkins playing an iron second was short of the green, but chipped in 3 feet from the hole. Then Voigt ran in with his ball, broke for a half in 5 as Perkins took two putts.

Progress of Golf Noted by Mrs. Horn

By MIRIAM BURNS HORN National Golf Champion

Golf is taking the country by leaps and bounds. In case you are inclined to doubt it, just look back a few years ago, say about ten. I began my golfing career exactly 10 years ago, so I prove my point. I shall speak of the time just prior to that.

We were then living just off the Kansas City Country Club grounds, located right in the midst of the best residential district. At the time the club settled there, it was far out in the country, and I have heard people tell how it required the trolly to drive out in a carriage, play a game of golf and then get back before dark.

Of course, things have changed since then. I was a member of the club and I have heard people tell how it required the trolly to drive out in a carriage, play a game of golf and then get back before dark.

Perkins half hit an iron off the first tee and his ball rolled into the rough on the right of the fairway. Voigt was right down the middle and well over the knoll.

Perkins played a pretty hole to the green, 28 feet to left of cup, but short. Voigt turned slightly and pulled his second almost to upper corner of green, but he was inside.

Correct Manners Explained

By Mrs. CORNELIUS HEIKMAN

DEAR MISS HEIKMAN:

Yours truly,

Dear Miss Heikman:

I am a young man and I am very much interested in your column. I have been reading it for some time and I have learned a great deal from it. I am sure that it will be of great help to many other young men.

Yours truly,

W. J. HEIKMAN

1234 Main St., Boston, Mass.

It is a very common mistake to think that a young man should be very formal and stiff in his manners. In fact, a young man should be as natural and easy-going as possible. He should not be afraid to smile and to be friendly to everyone he meets. A young man who is too formal and stiff will never be popular.

Another common mistake is to think that a young man should be very smart and witty. In fact, a young man should be as simple and straightforward as possible. He should not try to impress people with his cleverness or his wit. A young man who is too smart and witty will never be taken seriously.

It is also a mistake to think that a young man should be very handsome and well-dressed. In fact, a young man should be as clean and well-groomed as possible. He should not worry about his appearance too much. A young man who is too concerned with his appearance will never be able to concentrate on his work or his studies.

Talks on Nursing

By HANS A. L. REED, M. D.

Former President of the American Medical Association

THE nurse is a very important person in the home. She is the one who takes care of the sick and the infirm. She is the one who gives the doctor's orders. She is the one who makes the patient comfortable. She is the one who keeps the house clean and tidy. She is the one who makes the family happy.

It is a very common mistake to think that a nurse should be very formal and stiff in her manners. In fact, a nurse should be as natural and easy-going as possible. She should not be afraid to smile and to be friendly to everyone she meets. A nurse who is too formal and stiff will never be popular.

Another common mistake is to think that a nurse should be very smart and witty. In fact, a nurse should be as simple and straightforward as possible. She should not try to impress people with her cleverness or her wit. A nurse who is too smart and witty will never be taken seriously.

It is also a mistake to think that a nurse should be very handsome and well-dressed. In fact, a nurse should be as clean and well-groomed as possible. She should not worry about her appearance too much. A nurse who is too concerned with her appearance will never be able to concentrate on her work or her studies.

Just taste an onion that's lost itself in a rich, smooth sauce of Borden's milk then you will know how perfect an onion can be—any vegetable—creamed with the double-richness of Borden's Evaporated Milk.

Economical, too. Guaranteed by the oldest and largest milk company in the U.S.A.

(Here the tested recipe in your cookbook)

Onions à la Borden

Peel and cook onions in boiling water until tender but not browned, adding salt just before cooking is completed. Drain and place a layer of onions in a buttered baking dish, sprinkle with grated cheese, and cover with 1 cup white sauce. Repeat. Cover top with fine bread crumbs. Bake with bits of butter and bake in moderate oven until crumbs are lightly browned.

White Sauce—Melt 3 tablespoons butter in saucepan, stir in 3 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt and dash of paprika. Stir in slowly 1 cup Borden's Evaporated Milk, whisked with 1 cup water, stirring until oil-free is smooth and thick.

Fiction-Like, Fact Story of a "Regular Fellow"

CHAPTER II
The Prince of Wales has been called the best-dressed man in the world. He dresses well, of course, for he is the actor of a different kind, a state and gentlemanly refinement. The Prince of Wales takes an intelligent and active interest in his wardrobe, and though he has definite ideas of his own, particularly of color and style—and occasionally overrules the advice of his tailor and valet—no one can accuse him of too much originality on this score. He follows his own tastes to a large extent, but a feature of his garments is their masculinity. Although the Prince wears the services of two valets, he personally supervises his own wardrobe in order to see that they are well preserved and that his stock is not too extensive.

Was the Prince of Wales who was responsible for the resurrection of the tail and the collar? He selected a model more suitable and fitting for young men than that previously worn. He had covered a new angle at which the stock could be worn, and the Prince's valet, who had been told that the Prince's stock was to be worn in the manner of a coat, had been told that the Prince's stock was to be worn in the manner of a coat.

All Eyes Were Focused on The Prince of Wales

With all eyes focused on the Prince of Wales, eagerly awaiting some news of his engagement to a suitable future wife, the surprise was great when the announcement was made that the Duke of York, brother of the Prince of Wales, was to be married to the daughter of the Earl and Countess of Strathmore.

The wedding ceremony was performed on April 15, 1923, the Prince of Wales acting as best man. The Duke of York, who had been engaged to the daughter of the Earl and Countess of Strathmore, was married to the daughter of the Earl and Countess of Strathmore.

Lily never forgot the scene in the little white bedroom that night when she and the doctor had been peeping up at her head and a uniform fairly glistening with white snow on her slender, straight body. Her shoes and stockings were white too, and she was as crisp and spotless and professional-looking as a head nurse on duty in a hospital.

She turned her head and looked up at Lily, standing on the threshold of the door. Lily was looking at her, and she was looking at her, and she was looking at her.
